

THE OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF THE NATIONAL SPORTS AUTHORITY

PICTURE CAPTION: NSA Boss with the Minister of Youth and Sports and other officials from the Ministry.

RENOVATION OF THE SEKONDI SPORTS STADIUM

On Monday May 4, 2020, the Minister of Youth and Sports, Hon. Isaac Kwame Asiamah (MP), with the support of other dignitaries' official commenced major renovation works at the Sekondi Sports Stadium, Essipong in the Western Region of Ghana.

Present at the ceremony and with observance of personal protection against the Coronavirus infection included Hon. Joe Ghartey (MP), Minister of Railways Development, Hon. Kwabena Okyere Darko-Mensah (MP), Western Regional Minister, Mr. Anthony K. K. Sam, Metropolitan Chief Executive, Sekondi Takoradi, Mr Frank Quist, Chief Director, Ministry of Youth and Sports, Hon. Kwadwo Baah Agyeman, Board Chairman, National Sports Authority, and Professor Peter Twumasi, Director General, National Sports Authority.

A similar renovation work is being carried out at Accra and Kumasi sports stadiums. The ten (10) new stadiums in the ten old regions are underway, and with minimum completion level at 80%.

The Director-General of National Sports Authority, Prof. Peter Twumasi with Athletes who participated in the 2020 National Cross Country Event which took place at Ajumako.

2020 NATIONAL CROSS COUNTRY ATHLETES RECEIVE CASH PRIZES

PR DEPARTMENT, NSA | WEDNESDAY 24TH JUNE, 2020

The National Sports Authority on Wednesday 24th June, 2020 paid all prize monies due athletes who took part in the 2020 National Cross Country event, which took place in Ajumako in the central region.

The Director General of NSA, Professor Peter Twumasi thanked the athletes and their respective coaches for their commitment to develop athletics in Ghana. He further stated that athletics will continue to be a priority to the NSA, as the country prepare to host the 2023 African Games.

The 2nd runner up for both male and female categories took home GH¢1,000.00 cedis each, while the 1st runner ups bagged GH¢2,000.00 cedis. The best male and female athletes received GH¢3,000.00 cedis each.

Prof. Twumasi Presenting A Cash Prize To A Male Athlete

CLICK BELOW TO READ TRENDING STORIES

GDA IS OFFICIALLY PRESENTED WITH REGISTRATION CERTIFICATE AND LICENSE TO OPERATE

NSA MOURNS WITH FAMILY OF THE FORMER BLACK STARS AND ASANTE KOTOKO LEGEND

NSA BOSS VISITS TAMALE REGIONAL OFFICE OF THE NSA

Scrabble Association Executives Pay Courtesy Call On The DG of NSA

PR DEPARTMENT, NSA | THURSDAY, 9TH JULY 2020

The Ghana Scrabble Association had an online elections on 3rd June 2020. The elected executives paid a courtesy call on the Director General of the National Sports Authority, to introduce themselves to him.

Prof. Peter Twumasi expressed satisfaction with the processes they chose during this period of the covid-19 pandemic and advised the executives to abide by all the regulations that are enshrined in the sports Act 2016.

The newly elected president Mr. Adamu touched on his background and his achievements as a player and a professional security consultant.

The Director General congratulated the elected executives and asked them to work hard in partnership with the NSA so as to move the association to a professional status. Professor Twumasi further advised them to work on a comprehensive constitution which will be a legal document to guide the association's activities adding that, they have to deposit a photo album of members with the Authority.

He also reiterated the NSA's commitment to support the association if they should pursue sports at the grassroots level (Districts). The newly elected executives announced that they are going to organise a national virtual event.

Prof. Peter Twumasi inspecting the Security unit at the NSA

NATIONAL SPORTS AUTHORITY UNVEILS IT'S NEW SECURITY UNIFORMS

PR DEPARTMENT, NSA | FRIDAY, 22ND MAY 2020

As part of the re-branding programmes in the Agency of Government responsible for sports development, promotion and organization, the authority unveiled their new security uniforms. The four different sets of uniforms made up of short and long sleeve regular uniform, jackets (suit), and lacoste to be match with two sets of boots (long and short) and belt, were displayed at a special parade at the forecourt of the VIP lounge in the Accra Sports Stadium.

The parade was inspected by the Director General of the Authority, Prof Peter Twumasi, who praised management for their efforts to realize this vision.

He advised all security officers of NSA across the country to help police our sporting facilities to ensure protection of life and property, and also to take care of their uniforms which are government properties.

He also thanked the Board Chairman, Hon Kwadwo Baa Agyemang, and his members, and the Sector Minister, Hon Isaac Asiamah for their support.

Commander of the parade was the Acting Head of the Security Unit, Mr Kumordji.

READ MORE

MC BBPHYLLS DONATES TO NSA AND DISABLED SPORTS ASSOCIATION.